Prospects that the Tax Rate Will Be Reduced.

Croker, Grant and Other Tammany Men Are Exempted.

The Board of Aldermen met in special sion to-day to receive from the Tax oners the tax books for 1894, owing the amount of assessments in rsonal and real estate. There is an increase of $50,475.342 in real estate values and a decrease of property, said to be due to the recent hard times. The total assessed valun in 1893 was $1,933,518,529. This year the two-billion-mark was reached, the ot figures being $2,003,332,037.

The total increase in real and personal rty is $60.813.508.

The increase in real estate valuation, Mansapequa. sidering the depreciation of property would only yield about 2,00,000 gallons during the business depression, is abnal, and there will consequently be no necessity, as at first thought, for in
